CHILDCARE POLICIES

The Leventhal-Sidman Jewish Community Center offers childcare services to JCC members who are using the center. Children must be between three months and 7 years of age. The J Care child supervision room is located upstairs inside the Children's Gym. Guests and children who are not members are not eligible to use the child care service.

To use the childcare service, the parent or guardian must be located in the building. You may not leave the building. Your specific location is to be listed on the childcare check-in/check-out sheet. If you change your location, please notify the staff in the room at Extension 457 via an in-house phone.

HOURS OF OPERATION: *Availability subject to capacity

Monday - Friday 8:30am - 12:00pm

Saturday-Sunday 8:00am - 11:30am

Childcare Telephone #: (617) 558-6457

Please abide by all policies listed below:

- When entering the childcare room, please see one of the staff to check your child in, verify your workout location, put a name tag on your child, and receive any last minute instructions. You will also be required to sign your child out at pick-up.
- You are encouraged to bring a drink or a NUT-FREE snack for your child. We do not supply snacks.
- Please make sure your child has a clean diaper before entering the childcare room.
- If a baby/child needs a diaper change, a bottle, or is crying and upset, we will locate the parent to come and take care of their child's specific needs.
- Please label all bags and strollers. Labels are available.
- Please be prompt when picking up your child.
- Children showing cold symptoms will not be accepted into the babysitting room, and must be fever free for 24 hours before returning to babysitting.
- Limited to 1.5 hours of babysitting per day.

NOTE: It is important that all members follow these rules and guidelines so that the JCC can continue to provide your children with a fun and safe environment.

THANK YOU!
